Library News

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders of the Stark County Law Library

The annual meeting will be held Tuesday, February 15, 2005 at 11:00 a.m., in the conference room of the library. All stockholding members are invited to attend.

Elder Law Resources

Stop by and check our new display of materials on this important topic. The display is located near the Xerox machine in the main lobby, and the bibliography is on our website at: <<http://www.starklawlibrary.org/newsletter.htm>>.

Criminal Records Now Available on PACER

Public Access to Court Electronic Records (PACER) now provides access to all federal criminal court records that are normally available to the public at any federal courthouse, for all federal courts that currently have an electronic case management/electronic case filing system. Both the Northern and Southern Districts of Ohio have ECF systems accessible through PACER. PACER can be accessed at the law library, or for more information visit the PACER website at: <<http://pacer.psc.uscourts.gov/>>. There is a small fee to view and download documents.

There is additional information at: <<http://www.uscourts.gov/ttb/oct04ttb/access/index.html>>.

Meet Ann Capozzi - Our New Library Assistant

This month I would like to introduce Ann Capozzi who will be serving you as library assistant at the main library three and a half days each week.

To help you get to know her better I have "borrowed" the concluding interview questions from A&E's "Inside the Actor's Studio."

What is your favorite word? Peace
What turns you on or excites you? My family
What turns you off? Closed minds
What sound or noise do you love? Celtic music
What sound or noise do you hate? Sirens
Other than your present position, what profession or occupation would you most like to try? Writer
What profession/occupation would you not like? Air traffic controller
What do you want to hear God say to you at the Pearly Gates?
Behind these gates you will find all the answers

"To him whose elastic and vigorous thought keeps pace with the sun, the day is a perpetual morning."

Henry David Thoreau
